WHAT PUTS YOU IN A MOOD?

When Judy Moody has to give up her summer on the first day of school, she gets in a bad mood. On the other hand, some things put Judy in a very GOOD mood—including winning the Giraffe Award for sticking her neck out for a good cause (a bottle drive to save the rain forest). What puts YOU in a bad mood? What puts you in a GOOD mood? Make a list under each heading. Which list is longer? When you're done, compare your list with a friend's. Which entries are the same? Which are different? Now, in the last column, list some ways to get OUT of a bad mood if you're in one

Things that put me
in a Good mood

Going to Fur and Fangs

Things that put me
in a Bad mood

Brushing my hair

Things that get me

Observation Test

To be an honest-to-jeppers detective, you need super-sharp powers of observation. Test your eagle eyes by looking at the image below. After ten seconds, try to answer the questions beneath it without looking at the picture. How many can you answer?

1. What is the name of the store shown in the picture?

2. What letter appears on the grocer's apron?

3. What object is Judy holding?

4. How many cars can you see in the parking lot?

5. What does the sign in the store window say?

6. What is Frank holding?

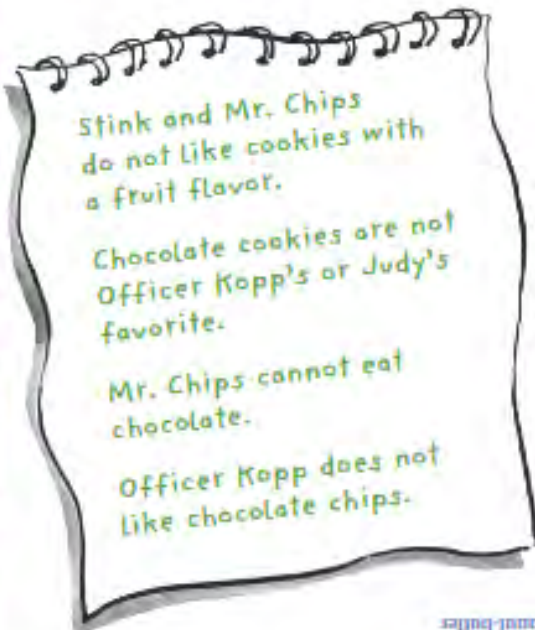

7. What is Stink doing?

Answers: (1) Speedy Market, (2) K, (3) magnifying glass, (4) six, (5) Sale, (6) notebook and pencil, (7) looking under cars.

PUT ON YOUR THINKING CAP!

Solve the Cookie Case!

Judy, Stink, Officer Kopp, and Mr. Chips all have a different favorite cookie: peanut-butter, lemon, chocolate-chip, and chocolate. Use your detective thinking (and the grid below) to figure out which person likes which type of cookie based on the evidence written in the notebook.

	Peanut-Butter	Lemon	Chocolate-Chip	Chocolate
Judy
Stink
Officer Kopp
Mr. Chips

Answer: Judy—chocolate-chip; Stink—chocolate; Officer Kopp—lemon; Mr. Chips—peanut-butter

Collecting clues

What can you sleuth out by just examining the cover of a book?

- ③ Judy Moody, Girl Detective is number _____ in the Judy Moody series.
- ③ The author of Judy Moody, Girl Detective is: _____
- ③ The illustrator of Judy Moody, Girl Detective is: _____

Answer: 9, Megan McDonald, Peter H. Reynolds

Make a Mood Ring

Read about Judy's mood ring in JUDY MOODY PREDICTS THE FUTURE. When the mystery prize in a box of cereal is a mood ring, Judy closes her eyes and imagines it turning purple, for "Joyful, On Top of the World" – but maybe the mood ring knows Judy's mood better than she does! Now you can make your own mood ring to perfectly match your mood.

You'll need:

- An assortment of different coloured buttons
- Pipe cleaners or elastic
- Beads (optional)
- Scissors
- A helpful adult

To do:

1. Pick a button that matches your mood. Refer to Judy's Mood Ring Guide for each colour's significance. See lower left corner.
2. With a pipe cleaner for younger children, elastic for older ones, thread the button by pushing up from the bottom of one buttonhole and back down through another hole.
3. To make the ring fancier, you can string beads on either side of the button (optional).
4. Place the button on the front of your finger, and have a friend or adult tie the elastic or twist the pipe cleaner to fit the ring to your finger.
Remember to make the ring big enough so that it can slide on and off your finger!
5. Cut off any excess pipe cleaner or elastic. Bend the sharp ends of the pipe cleaner so they won't scratch.

Stink's Cross-the-Solar-System Crossword

Stink and his friends, aka Captain Pluto and the Underdogs, are cuckoo for the solar system. They've been reading space facts until their eyes cross. All that eyeball crossing led to Sophie of the Elves creating this crossword. Need some extra help? Crack open Stink: Solar System Superhero and you might find some answers in Stink's Solar System Comics.

Hint: My Very Excellent Mother Just Served Us Nine Pizzas might help with solving the puzzle.

ACROSS

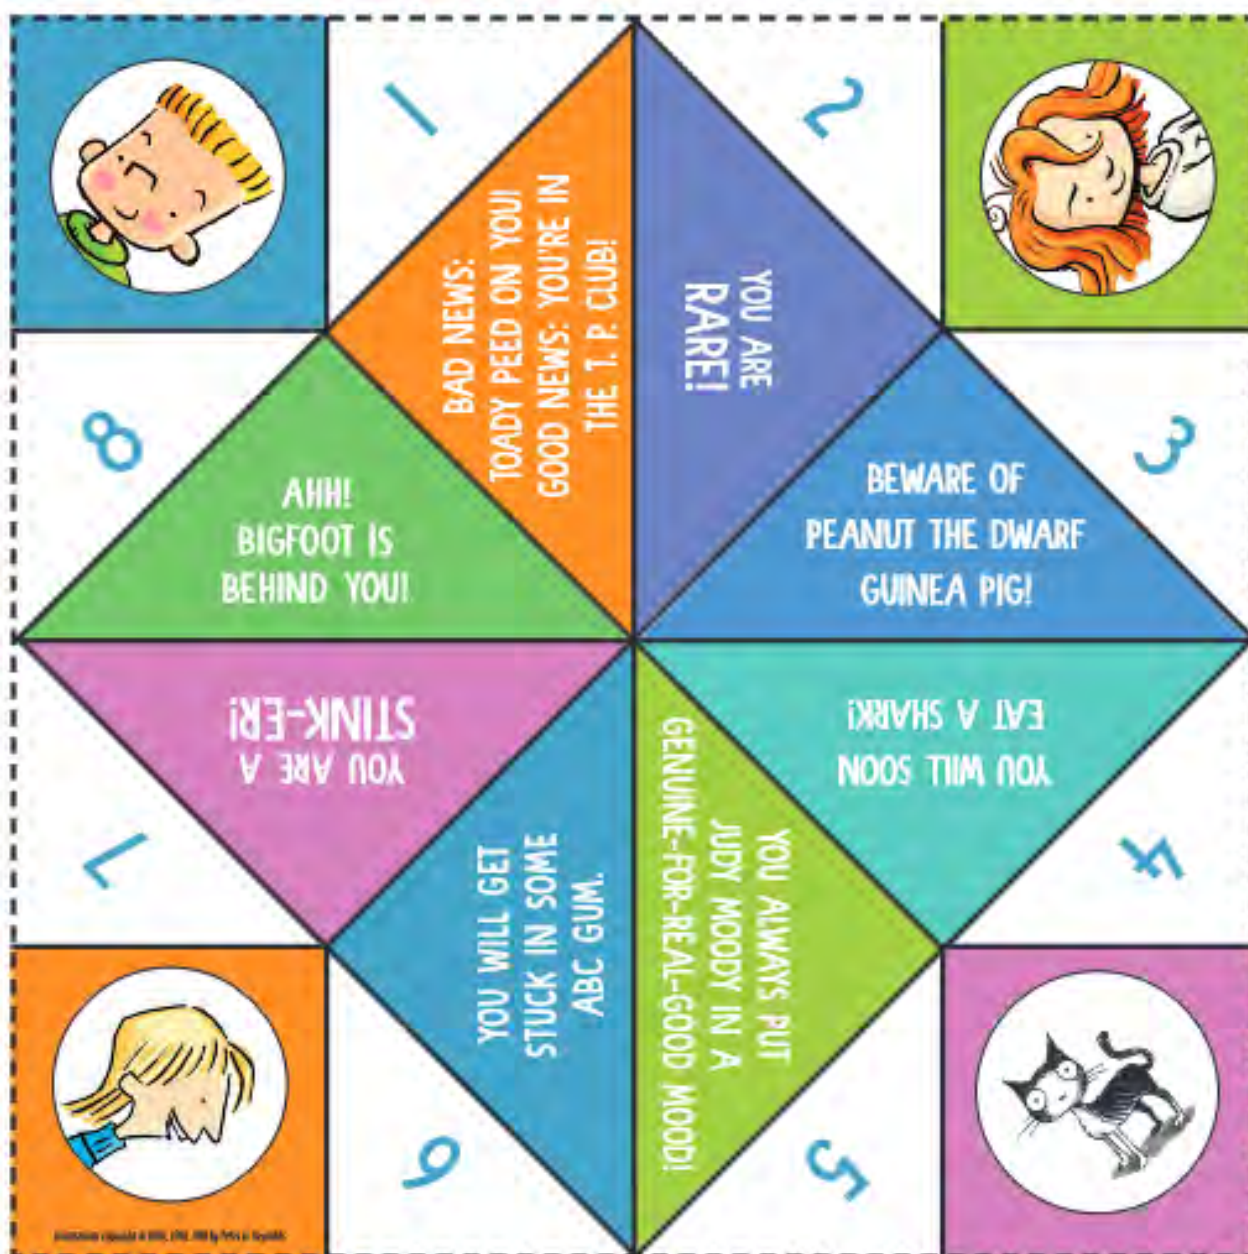

1. Birthplace of Stink Moody.
3. Sometimes in a belt.
Sometimes on its own.
Either way, look out!
4. The ring-around-the-rosy game of any planet, moon, or other revolving thing in space.
5. This ice giant has a surface temperature of minus 300 degrees. Brr-rrr!
7. No fair! Kicked off the planet list! Dwarf planet? Come on!
11. This blue planet keeps busy (and dizzy) with thirteen moons.
12. Gravity about a third of that of Earth. A great place to play basketball!

DOWN

2. Coolest job ever (after being a professional smeller for NASA).
6. Made of gas (hardee-har-har).
8. Smells like a giant rotten egg! P.U.!
9. Its Great Red Spot is a storm that has raged for 300-plus years. Argh!
10. A face-melting 840 degrees on the bright side!

JUDY MOODY COOTIE CATCHER

HOW TO MAKE A COOTIE CATCHER

Cut around the outside of the cootie catcher.

Fold it in half and in half again.

Open it up and turn it over so the top is blank, and fold each corner into the middle.

Turn it over and again fold each corner into the middle.

Turn it over so you can see the pictures.

Slide your thumb and your finger behind two of the pictures and press together so they bend around and touch.

Repeat with the thumb and finger of the other hand for the other two pictures.

The four Judy Moody pictures should now be at the front with centers touching. You are ready to use your cootie catcher!
